

General Forum Rules

Introduction

Welcome to the Emergency Nurses Association of Ontario forum. This site was created as a way for the ENAO to share ideas, thoughts and comments with each other as a better connect with all the Emergency Nurses of Ontario. The General forums offer a valuable way for resource sharing, feedback, and discussion related to the issues that you might be facing in your day-to-day environments as frontline staff. We hope to build a welcoming and friendly online community.

Online feedback is important to the ENAO, as we understand that this may be an easier way for members to voice their thoughts comments and suggestions. All are welcome whether it is positive or negative.

Please remember that things post on the Internet stay on the Internet. Always be mindful of what you post and how you post because it can come back to haunt you.

The Moderator is currently the ENAO Webmaster.

Forum Language

The official language to be used with all postings on these forums is English.

Arguments

There is a fine line between discussion and an argument which is at times hard to define. In general a discussion becomes an argument when the postings become personal and if this starts to become obvious then the ENAO Moderator(s) will take necessary action which may include removal locking of posts, or revocation of forum privileges.

Personal Attacks

Under no circumstances will we allow attacks targeted at members of this forum. These are usually caused by discussions turning into serious arguments as mentioned above. Please think before posting anything that would be defined as this sort of attack. For example "Username is an idiot" Personal attacks, including those in personal forum messages or emails, are not welcome on these forums and will be dealt with firmly. As the moderators do not have access to personal forum messages or emails any action would only be in response to a specific complaint by the recipient.

Complaints

Keep them to the Suggestions, Comments and Complaints forum. However, if your complaint is about a particular post, use the Report button. We value your input as a member.

Spam/Self-Promotion

This forums primary function is to be used as a tool for communication. We will not allow you to add any links to promote/sell products or advertise business. This is not the place for it. Non-compliance will result in a warning, or in severe cases a revocation of privileges. If you are unsure or have any questions about this please send me a message.

Use of inappropriate language

The use of swear words, or disguised swear words, in a post is not allowed on the forums. Any attempt to avoid the swear filter will be dealt with which may include removal, locking of posts, or revocation of forum privileges.

Derogatory Names

The use of Derogatory names, sexual or racist items or links in a post is not tolerated anywhere on the ENAO forum and WILL result in revocation of forum privileges by the ENAO moderator.

Posting of Personal Details

Do not post any personal details whatsoever on the ENAO forum or post any personal messages this includes the content of personal messages (personal forum messages) or emails received from other users or the ENAO moderator(s).

Choice of forum Display Name, Avatar, or Signature

The forum moderator(s) reserve the right to ask any member to change their display name, avatar or signature should they feel that it is inappropriate or disrespectful.

All CAPS titles/posts

These can be annoying not only because in general "netiquette" they represent shouting, so please refrain from posting in all caps.

Everything Else

- Try to read the forum names so you post your thread in the right one
