

JENAO- Guidelines for Submission and Publication

Editorial Policy:

- 1. JENAO welcomes the submissions of clinical and research articles, case studies, and book reviews relating to Emergency Nursing.
- 2. Statements or opinions expressed in the articles are those of the author(s) and not necessarily those of the Communications Officer, publisher, or ENAO. The foregoing disclaim all responsibility and liability for such material and do not guarantee, warrant or endorse any product or service advertised in this journal, neither do they guarantee any claim made by a manufacturer.
- 3. Authors are encouraged to have all articles peer-reviewed for style and content before submission.
- 4. ENAO reserves the right to determine all JENAO content. The decision regarding the publication of any submission to JENAO belongs to the Communications Officer, in consultation with the ENAO President as required.

Preparation of Manuscripts:

- 1. An original copy of manuscripts and supporting material must be submitted to the ENAO Communications Officer. The author should retain one complete copy.
- 2. Manuscripts and submissions must be submitted electronically as a Word document.
- 3. Author(s) name(s) and complete contact information must accompany each submission.
- 4. Direct quotations, tables, and illustrations that have appeared in copyrighted material must be accompanied by written permission from the copyright owner, and the original author. Complete source information must be identified.
- 5. Photographs of identifiable persons, whether patients or staff, and all names listed must be accompanied by signed releases, such as the following: "I hereby give (author's name) my authorization to use the photograph or identity of (subject's name) in JENAO."

Please forward all submissions for JENAO consideration to the ENAO Communications Officer as identified on the ENAO website: www.enaome.com
